

North Collins MUSIC BOOSTER SCHOLARSHIPS

Beginning with the 2022-2023 school year, the North Collins Music Boosters has offered scholarships in two categories. The number of scholarships awarded each year will depend upon the number of qualified applications received and the funds available.

SCHOLARSHIP CATEGORIES

I. Music Boosters: Future Musician Award

The winner(s) of this award must have a long history of participation in the music programs of North Collins. They must have auditioned and been accepted into a four-year music program, majoring in instrumental or voice performance, music education, or a field related to music such as sound recording, theater or music therapy. The winner(s) must show proof of enrollment in any two or four-year college or university.

II. Music Boosters: Appreciation Award

The winner(s) of this award must have a long history of participation in the music programs of North Collins. Generally, this history should be during Junior High and High school and continue through senior year. It should include not only band or chorus or both, but participation in one or more of the smaller ensemble groups such as Musically Yours, the Jazz Ensemble or any other select group.

Participation in adjudicated solo performances, the musical, outside of school groups (i.e. church choir) and supporting the music program through volunteering (i.e. sub sales) is highly desirable. The winner(s) must show proof of enrollment in any two or four-year college or university.

Applicants for the Future Musician Award or the Music Boosters Appreciation Award should complete the attached application. The applications should be returned to the Guidance Office no later than the date indicated on the application. The applications will be forwarded to the Music Boosters, who will select the recipients of each award. The award winners will be named at Class Night. Disbursement of award monies will be made when proof of enrollment criteria is submitted to the President or Treasurer of the Music Boosters.
